MIGRANTS RIGHTS

HEALTH

Refugees, as any other foreign, can and should receive hospital and clinical public care in all national territory.

Brazilian legislation secures that all the services provided by the Unic Health Care System are universal, free of charge and accessible to all individuals in Brazil territory. For that you must present your CPF ( social security number ) or RNM at any public hospital, clinic or health post and request your SUS Card. This card is free and can be utilized at any public health unity in all national territory.

In Brazil, the parents have the obligation to vaccinate their childrens. The children of refugees can freely obtain vaccines in healthcare posts.

EDUCATION

The refugees have the right to attend at public elementary and high schools , as well as to participate in public health programs and technical and professional capacitation . They can also access university education , in the same mold of Brazilians or through special refugee university admission programs.

FREELY PRACTICE YOUR RELIGION

Brazil is a secular country that assures full freedom of worship, religion and belief .

FLEXIBILITY IN THE REQUIRED DOCUMENTS NECESSARY TO PRESENT FROM THE COUNTRY OF ORIGIN.

According to the article 43 from the refugees brazilian law, brazilians institutions have to consider the difficulties, from the refugees, to obtain and present the documents issued in their country of origin or consular and diplomatic representations

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

In Brazil, domestic or familiar violence against women is punished with major severity by the Maria da Penha Law number 11.340/2006. This law punishes physical, psychological, sexual, patrimonial and moral acts of violence against woman, independetly of their age. The law also provides a protection mechanism for the woman victim of domestic violence, with the possibility of urgent concession to protective measures and referral to services of reception, care, follow-up and shelter, when necessary.

HOW TO ACT IN CASE OF VIOLENCE

If you go to the nearest Emergency Room and inform, during the service, the violence suffered. Rio Preto has Police Stations Specialized in Assistance to Women, with professionals trained to assist women victims of violence. However, the complaint can be made at any police station. In rio preto there is the Center for Reference and Assistance to Women - CRAM on the available phones:
